

ENZO BOGLIETTI 2018 LANGHE NEBBIOLO

PRODUCER INFO

- Enzo Boglietti established his winery in 1991 in the heart of La Morra after growing up farming grapes, tending dairy cows and making fine cheeses with his father.
- Since then his holdings have grown to include 50 acres of single vineyard sites scattered across the Langhe.
- Enzo might well be the most open minded, progressive grower/vintner you'll come across in Piemonte – Visit his winery during harvest and you will find new experiments around each corner, with carefully marked lots bubbling away in every vessel imaginable, from botti, to foudre, to concrete egg, to barrique.

ABOUT THE WINE

- Enzo's Langhe Nebbiolo is declassified Barolo from La Morra with a bit of high altitude Roddino fruit judiciously added for extra structure.
- As is the case with his other "normale" releases, here we get a naked look at the varietal with admirable intensity and detail.

Vintage: 2018 | Wine Type: Red Wine

Varietal: Nebbiolo

Origin: Italy | Appellation: Langhe DOC

Elaboration: Sustainably farmed, picked by hand, and fermented with native yeasts. Aged in used French barrels for 9 months then returned to tank for 30 days prior to bottling to integrate flavors. Soil is a mix of clay and limestone, with a higher content of sand than surrounding appellations.

Winemaker: Enzo Boglietti

TASTING NOTES

Intense spicy and floral nose with some black fruit. Full-bodied, elegant and spicy, with ripe tannins, great balance and with a pleasant, long finish.
